

At the MTC, Mr. Rotrand is the President of the Finance Committee which oversees the STM's budget of $1.038 billion. He also is the President of the Customer Service Committee which reviews service improvements and assesses client satisfaction.

Councillor Rotrand also presides the Intercultural Commission of the Borough of Cote des Neiges – Notre Dame de Grace. This Borough which includes Snowdon district is one of Montreal's most multicultural and multiracial. The Commission's mandate is to promote tolerance and understanding and support the community and fraternal organizations in their efforts to preserve their heritage while building their Canadian identity.

For his entire tenure of office, Mr. Rotrand has been associated with progressive causes. His work in the 1980s led to the creation of the Quebec Police Ethics Commissioners Office, a civilian agency created to impartially judge citizens complaints against police officers.

Councillor Rotrand is also noted for his work that led to the City's initial affirmative action programs for the hiring of minorities and women.

Councillor Rotrand has also been a vocal advocate in favour of sustainable development and the protection of green space. He has succeeded in leading the City to purchase several ecologically valuable forests for their inclusion in the regional park network.

Marvin Rotrand is a native Montrealer. A high school teacher by profession, Mr. Rotrand graduated from Sir George Williams University and McGill University in History and Education.
